Tribute from Heather MacAndrew

Relation: longtime friend

I've known John since the late 1960s at UBC, where we were both students. Longish hair, bearded and driving a classic Land Rover, he had the same boundless energy, curiosity, brains and sense of humour and fun then, as he did almost to the end. An admirable life, well lived. I am missing him.

Tribute from Eleanor Boyle

Relation: A good friend

Dear Karen and Hannah and Fiona and Heather:
What a beautiful and memorable tribute you have shared with all of us who knew and admired John. You remind us that he was driven more by values than by conventional measures of success. Your words are a reminder to me to live a full and fearless life. Not to be afraid of taking risks, or of leaving a comfortable situation for the unknown.
Love, Eleanor

Tribute from Paula Shields (Mitzi)

Relation: Friend

Dear Karen, Hannah, Heather and Fiona, I am so sorry to hear of John's passing. I will always remember and be grateful that your family was the first people to give me a chance to work in Canada so very long ago when Heather and Fiona were babies. I learned so much from living with your family and I will always remember fondly your kindness and generosity. John was a tireless supporter of the underdog and lived his life in service of others. His life served as fine and noble example of the individual's capacity to make a difference. With love, Paula Shields (Mitzi)
